2023-2024

Field Trip Guide for Public, Private, and Homeschool Groups!

FOCUSED FIELD TRIPS

FALL

October: Bump in the Night

The night time isn't scary to these nocturnal friends! Bats, owls and possums are helpful and they have some unusual ways to survive!

November: Old-Time T-town

Explore life long ago in CHOM's T-town exhibits. Students will learn about the schools, stories, toys and technology of the past.

December: Celebrations Around the World

Learn about holiday traditions in Germany, Japan and Puerto Rico in this beloved program about countries around the world!

SPRING

March: Little Red Hen!

Enjoy some delicious bread, just like the Little Red Hen. Be prepared to work for it, unlike her friends in this famous fable!

April and May: It's a Spring Thing!

Enjoy the great outdoors at the Tuscaloosa Riverwalk for our Spring program! Learn about wetlands environments, animals and plants.

2nd grade!! Ch-ch-changes!

Students explore 3 exhibits AND a hands-on demo about reversible and irreversible changes.

All field trips cover Alabama Course of Study Standards!

See our website for details!
